

Shipping Policy

Effective Date: 8-1-2025

At Yolo Firearms, we strive to ensure your order is processed and shipped quickly and securely. Please review our shipping policy below.

Firearms (Including NFA Items Such as Suppressors)

- All firearms must be shipped to a licensed Federal Firearms License (FFL) dealer.
- During checkout, you may select your receiving FFL dealer from our integrated network.
- If you choose an FFL not listed in the network, additional time may be required for verification before your order can ship.
- Firearms cannot be shipped directly to individuals.

Optics & Non-Firearm Items

- Optics and other non-regulated items may be shipped directly to your provided shipping address.

Processing & Handling Times

- Orders are typically processed within 1-2 business days.
- You will receive tracking information via email once your order has shipped.

Carriers

- We ship via FedEx or UPS. The carrier used may vary depending on your order.

Shipping Fees

- If a shipping fee is applicable, it will be calculated at checkout based on carrier rates and order details.

Shipping Restrictions

- We comply with all federal, state, and local laws. Certain items may not be available for shipment to specific states or jurisdictions.
- It is your responsibility to know and comply with your local laws before ordering.
